

As a sixteen year old voodoo queen in the making, Joan Renault just wants to be like all the other girls in the small town of Monte Parish, Louisianaâ€™”obsessed with boys and swamped with social lives. If the other kids would quit calling her â€™hoodoo hag,â€™ she might have a small shot at normality. It would also help if Joanâ€™s weekend outings with her secret crush, Dave, werenâ€™t always being interrupted by her dead Grandmere, the legendary Marie Laveau. After all, itâ€™s hard to make out with your best friend when your grandmother is watching! But when you come from a long line of voodoo priestesses with dried gator heads decorating the wall of their huts, normal doesnâ€™t come easily. When Joan witnesses the brutal sacrifice of a child to a tree Druid, she learns her Grandmereâ€™s scandalous past has come back to haunt those living in the present. Hera, a vengeful voodoo priestess is determined to use the residual energy of Pandoraâ€™s Box to revive a sleeping voodoo god and declare war on the descendants of Marie Laveau, especially Joan. Suddenly, Greek myths are being re-enacted all over town, and Joan has her hands full trying to sort it all out. With the approach of Samediâ€™s Dayâ€™”the voodoo day of resurrectionâ€™”Joan must learn to accept her destiny in order to stop the approaching threat to her family and friends.
