

The idle life - many Chinese poets celebrate it. In a most poetic way they explain to us their love of idleness: In this pleasant landscape I leave everything worldly behind. Idly and leisurely my life passes by. The evening is clear “ the wind wafts through the bamboo. And a glass of wine may not be missed: A long night of deep talks. Even the bright moon couldnt sleep. Finally, we came down drunken “ the sky as quilts “ the earth as pillows. Enjoy reading.
